Global Food Solutions
Works with #BESTRONG Foundation to Promote Anti-Bullying in Schools

Hauppauge, NY. – October 31st, 2016 – Global Food Solutions & CEO Michael Steven Levine recently worked with Monica Lewinsky and the #BESTRONG Foundation to promote Anti-Cyber Bullying in Schools. This work provides a strong foundation to build on for the Global Food Solutions team in furthering our philanthropic efforts in working with our Global Cares Program.

The program works to directly by connecting with students receiving goods in the New York City School Food System under the Universal Free Breakfast Program to educate students on the effects of Cyber Bullying. Products featuring the Emoji have begun to roll out across the 5 boroughs of the New York City School Food Program.
